The Stonegate Cumberland Presbyterian Church began as the Edmond New. That sounds like a good, solid name for a church. This is historical scan of first Stonegate Church Bulletin The Cumberland Presbyterian Church came out of the old Presbyterian Church, February 4, 1810, on the American frontier, as the Great Revival sparks development of Cumberland movement, church.